Description

1. Go down Avenue Jean Jaurès towards the church. At the roundabout, turn right onto Rue de la Boulbène towards En Racaud and turn left.

2. At the place called En Racaud, at the crossroads, go up to the right for a few meters, then enter the dirt road on the left, to the right of the entrance gate to the Château de Rogistan.

3. Follow the dirt road until you reach the road. Nice viewpoint over Cuq-château. Turn right and follow the tarmac road to Lenjon.

4. Before Lenjon, take the path on the left towards the Causse pond. Follow the pond to the dike then turn sharply to the right into the undergrowth below the dike. Do not take the private path reserved for tractors.

5. Cross the road then cross the stone bridge over the Thiers stream. Continue until you reach the D45.

6. At the D45, turn left for 150 m then at the crossroads, turn right to go back up towards Cuq-château. After the Cuq en terrasses restaurant, go along the ND de la Visitation church then turn left onto the grassy path along the castle and arriving at the esplanade du calvaire with its picnic area. Beautiful view of the Montagne Noire and the Pyrenees.

7. Retrace your steps to cross Cuq-château again. At the exit of the hamlet, take the dirt road on the right, just after the house. Go down the hill, cross the bridge on the road, then turn left. Join rue Aristide Briand, continue then turn right at the roundabout at the bottom of the village church to return to the starting point.
