Description

1. At the crossroads, take the road towards Laurendié. Cross the hamlet. At the first two forks, choose a right. In front of Le Galot, go right.

2. Take the stone path on the left. At Salsefrique, do not take the access road to the house but take the next path on the right and pass at the foot of a plane tree. Cross the path, then slip between two meadows. In the woods, go along the fence of a property, pass it and go down to the right. Follow the path on the left, then the road on the right. At the foot of the Métairie-Neuve-du-Bois-Grand, continue straight on the road.

3. In front of Bertrasse, turn right and go straight. Continue straight on the tarmac. At the top of the hill, take the path on the left towards En Rigal. At the edge of a wood, go straight under the pines. At the path, turn left (! > watch out for electric fences!).

4. At Métairie-Neuve, take the road on the left. Continue straight on this road, leaving En Julio on the right, until the crossroads (! > calvary!) located on the crest.
