Description

Starting from Roussayrolles, you cross the village and continue along the Chemin des Nougayrols towards the "sentier des écoliers," typical of the Causse. You descend the winding road and, once at the heights, turn right onto the path that passes below the hamlet of Peyralade. At the intersection in the cedar plantation, turn left and follow the gravel path to the Dolmen crossroads. You then ascend via the Chemin de La Peyre and the trails through the chestnut woods towards the "Liberte" crossroads and the place called "La Fleur de Lys."

Finally, you descend to the hamlet of Mespoulet and return to the village of Roussayrolles.
