Arrival : Same place as start

Markings : — PR

Cities : 1. Montans

An oenorando® on the left bank of the Tarn, one of the 3 terroirs of the Gaillac vineyards, made up of pebbles, gravel and sand. A chance to step back in time to Gallo-Roman times and learn all about sigillated pottery!

Oenorando®

Cet itinéraire a été labellisé par la FFRandonnée en tant qu'Oenorando®. Il s'agit d'une randonnée qui vous fera découvrir le territoire et les paysages du vignoble et des vins du gaillacois. Le domaine viticole au départ du parcours vous permettra ensuite de découvrir le savoir-faire des vignerons.

Labellisé FFRandonnée® Tarn

Cet itinéraire est labellisé FFRandonnée®. Il fait partie du réseau tarnais de chemins validé et reconnu par la Fédération Française de la Randonnée et les partenaires du Tarn comme de qualité supérieure.

Advices

At the end of the park, the exit to go up to the lookout point has not yet been completed. Return to the road and go to the square, the esplanade and the lookout point on Rue du Belvédère.

Description

- 1 Leaving the car park behind the reception, walk alongside the vines parallel to the road until you reach the first houses, then continue along the street to the large square in Montans.
- 2 Cross the square. When you reach the Archeosite roundabout, turn left into the public garden. Take the exit diagonally opposite, which leads to a small square in the old village with a viewpoint over the Tarn. Turn right into Rue du Belvédère until you reach the shaded market square. Turn left into Rue des Jardins. Turn right into Rue de l'Église and cross the main road. Take the pavement on the right and you will reach the Archaeological Site.
- 3 Turn left into rue de l'Archéosite (route de Cadalen) and continue to the Domaine de La Croix des Marchands, which you cross to reach the junction with chemin de la vigne.
- 4 Turn left and go up the alley to the restaurant. Before reaching the restaurant, go around the estate on the right and continue along the path that winds through the vines and leads to the D87, opposite the Carcenac estate. Cross carefully, turn right and walk parallel to the road for 150m, then turn left along the vineyard. At the pumping station, turn left and return to the starting point.
