Description

- 1 Facing the sign at the Ourtigas parking lot, take the gravel forest trail to the right. At the first crossroads, ignore the D 170 on the right and go straight towards Saint-Beauzile and Cordes. Follow the trail for 1.2 km until you reach a sharp left turn. You can reach the Sainte-Cécile du Cayrou church by taking the road to the right (see dashed line on the map; 3.5 km round trip).
- 2 Climb left on the forest road of La Baronne for 4.5 km. It passes near Peyro Signado and Lac Rond.
- 3 At the intersection of the trails, continue to the left. Pass the barrier and descend on the forest road of Mailhac for 3.5 km to reach a crossroads.
- 4 Take the forest road of l'Ourtigas to the right for 800 m until an intersection.
- 5 Turn left towards the oppidum of Saint-Clément and pass near the oppidum through the undergrowth.
- 6 At the fork, descend straight for 470 m, then take the gravel forest trail to the left. It passes by the source of Petit-Vichy (located on the left, near the small parking area) and ends on the road coming from the forest house. Follow it to the left to return to the starting point.
