Description

1. Walk along the cemetery wall, continue on the small path, cross the D48 to reach the banks of the Agout. Continue your walk on the dirt path bordering the Agout river. Viewpoint over the Agout plain from the bridge.
2. When you reach the tourist railway bridge, take the stairs on your right (54 steps) and walk along the railway line for about 500m (be careful: trains pass between April and October).
3. When you reach the intersection, turn left and walk on the D48 for 500m then leave the D48 by taking the path on your right at En Barreau. Continue on the farm track for about 500m.
4. Turn right to pass in front of the "En Jacquet" calvary. Cross a 1st road to reach the place called En Jacquet then a 2nd road, continue straight towards the Ludolac leisure center.
5. At the intersection, turn right towards Ludolac. After 400m, turn left then pass in front of the entrance to the site. You have the possibility to stop for a drink.
6. Leave the site by taking the dirt road located between the two ponds, at the end turn right and take the tarmac road again.
7. Turn left at the 1st intersection to reach the town center, follow the small road to the D48. Turn right towards the town hall where you can discover the St-Léonce church and its bell tower, and find the starting point.

In summer you have the possibility of taking a ride on the little tourist train.
